

LIBRARY

Gaur Brahman Ayurvedic College has its own central library. The central library of college is spread across 286 square meters with seating arrangement for 100 individuals and around 13653 books that includes Ayurveda as well as Modern Medicine books and Medical Journals. Computer, photostate machine and wifi facilities are also available in the library.

The Institute has lecture halls with ascending seating arrangements along with teaching aids such as posters, projector with screen, computer and speakers. The Seminar hall of the Institute is spread across 367 square meters and is used for various events, celebrations, admission procedures and for conducting examinations.

The Institute also possesses its own herbal garden that is spread across 2532 square meters in area with around 18207square meters herbal species. The institute has unique pharmacy and advanced quality testing laboratory. The Institute also has its own transport facilities for students and Ambulance for patients.